Ser. Clarence V. T.

Similary on earth with the service of the Standard of the and the landsord, also holder of the mortgage, is about to foreclose upon the little home, and would have done so. If May had not put in appearance. He becomes much smilten with her, and at the father's urgent request, agrees to marry him, to save the home. She has her own favorite, however, and writes to him, telling of the sac-ritics she is about to make, and the reason. Unknown to her, he is a no-terious handle, for whose capture there is a reward offered amounting to $5,000.

She gathers a posse together, and with the sheriff makes the capture, but is heart-broken to find the bandit is as other than her lover, who had given her a detitions name. She pleads with the aberia to release him, but the leands refuses to be released. May taken the money but promises to walt until her lover is out of jail, then to marry the man of her choice.

POLI'S BROADWAY THEATER.

Tonight at the big theater the spe-chal amateur night will be held. Mears. Hegil, Pateson and Manchrug and a surprise act will fill the bill. The pic-tures will be A Thorn in Vengeance. Innocense and Art in two reels—and others, all positively of the latest. Hel and Hill in their hig scream comedy an are the heat of the season and will appear tonight and tomorrow night. The Casey brothers will appear in antiphonal singing. Positively the biggest show in town at 5 and 10 cents.

THE BASS-CLEF CONCERT.

Judging by his record of the past two years, and by the manimous approval which the music critics of the country give him, Mr. Werrenrath is without doubt a very busy and a remarkably fine singer. He has appeared with the New York Orstorio society, has song at the Maline festival, twice at the Worcester festival, has been en tour with the Theodore Thomas orchestra, the Monaspolis Symbolium the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, the New York Symphony orchestra, Cincinnat! Symphony orchestra. and two scasons with the Boston Festival orchestra. Add to these 125 ap-pearances in rectals and with clubs all over the country in the last two years and his success can be appre-ciated.

Mr. Werrenrath is a young singer, graduated from the New York univer-sity in 1965, since which time he has devoted himself entirely to musical work. His success has been so great that today music critics agree that he is America's foremost young baritme. He is a thorough musician as well as singer and the club is to sing one of his late part songs.

Associate members of the club are privileged to reserve seats on Monday and Tuesday. The public sale begins on Wednesday, the Ed. Tickets are 50 cents each and will be on sale at Taxis book store. Concert Public. Imvis' book store. Concert Friday, the

FOETRY

THE RAINBOW.

They say that nevermore shall I beheld your face. It is not true!
They doubt the bow of promise in the sky who so believe.
Ah! dear one, when had passed the first wild poignant grief.
When first I looked about and Nature smiled.

I saw your love in everything.
No bud that burst into a gleam of beauty in the spring.
The pink magnelia trees, the subile sweet Mayflowers,
But thrilled me with fond memories Because your love for me, like them,
was fair,
With every changing scene of life
coming to me anew.

This is my hope, you have not left me here alone.

But still will keep my hand in yours, my vision clear
To see you when the vell is torn as your all-enfolding care from the pour love.

THE LONG DAY CLOSES.

No star is o'er the lake
Its pale watch keeping;
The moon is half awake,
Through gray mist oresping.
The last red leaves fall round
The porch of roses;
The clock hath ceased to sound,
The long day closes.

Sit by the affent hearth
In calm endeaver
To count the sounds of mirth
New dumb forever.
Heed not how hope believes
And fate disposes;
Shadow is round the enver.
The long day closes.

The lighted windows dim

Are fading slowly:
The fire that was so trim
Now quivers lowly.
Go to the dreamless hed Where grief repones: The book of toll is read. The long day closes.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Where did they catch these mock turtles, walter" "Don't know, surr; maybe it's near the sham-rock."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

"Newlywed seems to be an advocate of peace at any price." "How's that"
"After walking the floor all night with his son and heir, he hurried downtown and hired a $15-a-week trained nurse." "Is that a robber castle." inquired the tourist. "No, sir." replied the guide, "that place is kept by my father. It's a respectable garage." Washington Herald.

"That fellow is a source of great uneasiness to me. He may be an excellent young man but I wish he would keep away from my house." "Courting your daughter, is he?" "Naw; he's courting my cook." Washington Herald. "What makes you think our great public men don't work as hard as they used to" "By the photographs," re-plied Farmer Corntossel. "When I was a young feller the big men in politics didn't take near as much time to get shaved an have their hair cut.— Washington Star. "What makes you think the baby is going to be a great politicisn" asked the young mother, anxiously. "Fil tell you," answered the young father, confidently. 'He can say more things that sound well and mean nothing at all than any kid I ever saw.' Cleveland

Plain Dealer. Lady—'I guess you're gettin' a good thing out of tending the rich Smith boy, ain't ye, doctor." Doctor—Well, yes; I got a pretty good fee. Why?' Lady—'Well, I hope you won't forget that my Willie threw the brick that hit 'im."—Scribner's.

Double Deck Care.

While American street railways are trying out various "pay-as-you-enter," "pay-within" and "stepless" care, European (the have been experimenting with the double deck care. Two new types of electric car are to be tried in Liverpool designed to facilitate prompt exit and entrance of passengers. In exit and entrance of passengers. In one of those cars the main feature is a central platform divided into three parts by brass rails, the two outer parts being used for exit and the inner part being the entrance for all passengers, a separate flight of stairs being used for ascent to and descent from the upper deck. In the other type, there are two sets of stairs leading to the upper deck from the platform at each end of the car.
